

EFFECTS OF SPICE

The Brain / Head

Spice affects the brain and head in a variety of ways. Some of the physical effects include:

- Headaches
- Extreme sweating

Mentally it can have devastating effects on user's thoughts and mood:

- Psychotic symptoms such as paranoia and hallucinations
- Suicidal thoughts
- Depression
- Intense fear
- Inability to care about consequences
- Insomnia

Other Physical Effects

- Increased heart rate
- Vomiting
- Agitation / Tremors
- Uncontrollable body movements
- Red eyes
- Reduced blood flow to the heart
- Dry mouth
- Seizures
- Kidney failure
- Heart attacks

Withdrawal Symptoms

- Loss of appetite
- Vomiting and diarrhoea
- Dehydration
- Kidney damage / failure

